administration

PRES

PRESIDENT — CALVERT N. ELLIS

Leader of the Juniata College Administration is President Calvert N. Ellis. Active in college life since 1943, when he became president, he serves on the Board of Trustees and supervises the administrative affairs of the college. As a lecturer and traveler, he brings to Juniata a wide range of experience and knowledge which he shares willingly with the students and faculty.

Available to all students for advice and information, President Ellis takes an active interest in all phases of campus life. His support of all college functions, athletic and social, contributes greatly to the closeness and cohesion of Juniata College.

President Ellis has given many years of faithful service to Juniata. He is a valued friend and administrator, and his presence on College Hill has meant much to the progress of the college.

DEAN MORLEY MAYS

Supervisor of academic life is Dean of the College Morley Mays. His is the responsibility for handling the academic affairs of students and faculty. He carries out his duties with efficiency and an extra measure of ability.

Though much concerned with administration routine, Dean Mays is never too busy to welcome an individual student into his office. His counsel and advice are valued by many students, and his interest in college life, as well as college routine, is evinced in his willingness to give his time for special conferences.

An able administrator, a qualified professor and part-time member of the faculty, and a versatile individual, Dean Mays is a valuable member of the college community.

DEAN PAUL M. HEBERLING

Juniata men know well their dean Paul M. Heberling. He is appreciated by the students for his ready willingness to counsel and to guide. The Dean finds time to teach courses in sociology and psychology in the midst of his varied schedule. This includes serving as an advisor to the Senate and Judiciary, and as Director of the Student Placement Bureau. Whether in the classroom, in his office, or on campus Dean Heberling is friend of all students.

DEAN CHRISTINE YOHE

For three years the women of Juniata have had as their friend and counselor Dean Christine Yohe. As the Dean of Women she serves on the Student Senate, Campus Judiciary and Women's Judicial Board. As a teacher she lectures in Economics and Business Administration. As a member of the administration and the faculty Dean Yohe contributes greatly to Juniata College.

CLASS OF 1962

Class of 1962, built of hard work, good times, and lazy hours—now you are a finished product! The mortar that holds you together began in freshman days; in the sweltering gym where your genius was first tested, in the weak but oh! so bold revolt, and later in All-Class Nite: "Utopia" brought together forces which congealed to make a structure of service, strength, and success. In four years of aging you have laughed your way to victory in all areas—not only have you lead class, club, and Senate activities, but have commanded respect academically as well. "Little Caesar," "Bury Hampton," the off-campus class party, Tote as a Ski Lodge, Founders as an Old English castle, the senior Round-Up—last-minute productions that only your ingenuity and imagination could have achieved. The empty treasury could always be filled by car washes, auctions, personal persuasion, and the famous "Requisitioning Committee." Yes, you have built a class to be proud of and one that will be long remembered.

Ahead lies the future and with the same determination and good humor you will conquer that, too. There are so many different roads which you will take when leaving Juniata; some may never cross again. You take with you memories, knowledge, and understanding. You will leave much behind, however. Your efforts, experiences, and even your failures are cemented into Juniata and will be guidelines for those who follow. Since you entered Juniata's portals you have seen the bricks of Sherwood and the new girls' dorm rise up; when you see it again, there will be more bricks and more buildings, but your class will be then as you have made it now, Class of '62 "the greatest!!"

MAY DAY QUEEN

Spanish festivities ushered in the May Day weekend, 1960. The splendor of Spain prevailed on campus and culminated in the Memorial Gym Saturday afternoon when Nancy Cook was crowned May Queen. She and her court were escorted in by two gaily decorated matadors. Arrayed in Spanish costume, those attending the queen were Prince Charming John Gible . . . Maid of Honor Jean Davies . . . Senior attendants Elaine Neagley and Joanne Stauffer . . . Junior attendants Faith Bridegam and Linda Reidenbaugh . . . Sophomore attendants Joan Hively and Lynnea Knavel . . . Freshman attendants Carole Banse and Jan Peters.

To entertain the regal court there were Spanish dances, singing, and the traditional May Pole Dance by the freshmen.

The loveliness of weekend was made complete by a dance in the gym, which was decorated in the exotic air of Spain.

May Day Queen Miss Nancy Cook

Her majesty, Miss Nancy Cook, reigned as the lovely Queen of May. She was crowned at the traditional May Day ceremonies Saturday afternoon. Nancy, an elementary education major, is from Ebensburg, Pennsylvania. She and her court carried out the exciting atmosphere of Spain for the May Day weekend.

CLASS OF 1963

Three years have elapsed now since the class of '63 first appeared on J.C.'s campus as awestruck, befuddled, but eager freshmen. Having borne up dutifully through Freshmen Days, we saw fall burst into the festal Christmas season with all its gay decorations, the Class of '63's being judged tres bien. Caught up in the swirl of spring, May Day was soon upon us and the first year was over, leaving us breathless but glad we had come.

Returning a year later, we met the challenge of the sophomore: to be wise without being foolish. Challenges to us are what make success worth the effort, so that the year proved to be one of achievement. The stage of Oller Hall was the scene of our daring study of modern romance with all its ups and downs . . . as experienced by two elevators, that is. Our Spring Party looked back to the gentile ante bellum South where we showed ourselves as graceful as our equally gracious theme. While scoring triumphs socially and academically, we were certainly not found wanting in pulchritude when we sent Joan Hively and Lynnea Knavel to the May Court.

With the advent of another year we find ourselves exalted juniors and by now the ordeals of the frosh bring to mind memories of our similar experiences. Amazingly, Mountain Day arrived on time and with this auspicious sign of nature's beneficence we abandoned the musty halls of learning to partake of "the harmless folly of the time." With Homecoming, our class once again met with its accustomed success as our float representing the goals of J.C. brought us one of our triumphs. By now, finals have become routine, so it was with hopeful hearts and confident minds we saw one semester out and another in, only to throw ourselves once again into hectic, happy campaigning for a plethora of offices which have been filled by many capable juniors.

The years have passed and our time at Juniata is coming all too quickly to its close. Much has been done but more must be accomplished before we can say that the Class of '63 has recognized its challenge and has done its best to fulfill it.

CLASS OF 1964

Proud of your class? You bet. You took great strides this year. Frosh buttoned, crawled and were victims of your triumph at the Frosh-Soph games. Historians, too — you made your own Indian legend at Homecoming with your brave “braves” and shining maidens on your “reservation on wheels.” You opened your hearts and your pocketbooks to JWSF by “measuring up” the most good will in the penny race.

Holiday spirit? The warmth of a hearth and the sound of carols gave JCers a “home away from home” at Yuletide. And “Palace of Hearts” was a romantic success of an evening for our friend Cupid.

Brains . . . talent . . . You’ve got these, too. Impressively written and masterfully directed. “The Attempted Assassination of Hitler” kept All-Class Niters on the edge of their seats. Originality plus heart . . . evident in the Easter Egg Hunt sponsored for local children—fun for you “old folks,” too!

Sum total: an effective versatility doing justice to yourselves and your school. May the following years see you climb to even greater heights—you’re on your way!

CLASS OF 1965

The Class of 1965 began its history on College Hill with the "wearing of the blue and gold" — regulations. Looking back we remember those evenings of Freshman Court when you huddled in your rooms hoping the runners would pass by. The more brave among you went out to lead revolts against the sophomores. Parents Day came soon, and with it regs came off. But before the big day, you were subjected to the trials of Help Day and Gym Initiation.

Your class then scored with its united effort that pro-

President .....Bruce Davis
 Vice President.....Jesse Wright
 Secretary .....Toby Tyson
 Treasurer .....Craig Satterlee

duced the first freshman float in the history of J.C. Homecomings. At Christmas you transformed Oller Hall into a peppermint-striped castle. Your last official function as freshmen saw some of your class members star in the production of "William Tell" in All-Class Nite.

Move-Up Day signified an end and a beginning. As you moved through the traditional ceremonies you realized that your freshman year on College Hill was just a memory now. You can look forward to three more successful years at J.C.

SENATE

Years ago the Juniata College Association, commonly known as the Senate, was established to provide for the mutual communication between students, faculty, and administration. Even as the years have added responsibility to the shoulders of this organization, the actions of the Senate have merited a growing prestige.

The Senators of 1960-61 conclude their duties with a creditable record in each area of their responsibilities. The Senate, as a whole, deserves our acclaim for efforts in several areas, most notably the Honor System.

The development of an Honor System has yearly appeared as a controversial issue. To John Rummel's Senate fell the task of carrying the matter to a decisive conclusion. It went to work immediately after assuming responsibility, studying reports of special committees, drafting a code and presenting it for student approval. It was advised to prepare a different one. Student opinion was invited by open inquiry and discussion before a second code was formulated, but it, too, failed to win majority approval in January.

Investigation of the worth of clubs as a means of stimulating social life was also conducted. And worth mentioning is the initiation of a convenient bicycle rental service.

SENATORS

As the coordinators of student activity in the nine areas of campus life at Juniata, these juniors and seniors served onscientiously at their posts.

Standing Committee: Linda Mumma, Dean Christine Yohe, Sandy Warren, Jack Beamer.

JUDICIARY

In October, 1956, the student body and administration established the Campus Judiciary to implement non-academic rules. In its five years, the Judiciary has given Juniatians a means of self-discipline and self-government. The chairmanship is held by the Senate vice president. Under his direction all proceedings are conducted by a board of nine members: two elected students from the two upper classes, the chairmen of men's and women's student government, the deans of men and women, and a faculty member.

Elected seniors: Pauline Nagao, Dave Samuel.

Elected juniors: Ann King, Pat Frazier.

In addition to its normal functions, the Judiciary directed a major portion of its effort, this year, to the overhauling of the Constitution. This undertaking was dictated by a need for much more up-to-date procedures to deal with infractions of college rules. The constitution, in its modified form, will be presented to the student body and on the basis of their approval it will go into effect in the fall of this year.

For pep at football games, jazz concerts, JC night at the Clifton theatre, gala formals with top-notch bands, imaginative Wednesday night dances and small group parties, many, many thanks to a hard working Social Committee.

SOCIAL

Seated: G. Magliane, J. Knepper, K. Haviland, E. Kerns, B. Kepner. Standing: L. Maxwell, R. Groff, J. Caton.

EDUCATION

The academic eye on campus . . . working with the Chairman of Educational Activities, this group functioned as a well-oiled mechanism behind the Proctoring Bureau and the Tutoring Program for Freshmen. Study groups of seniors preparing for Comprehensive Exams were also organized. An innovation this year was Culture night presenting, at various times, lectures, readings, movies and panel discussions to stimulate intellectual activity and establish stronger student-faculty relations. The Chairman and her committee serve as the liaison between the Dean of the College and the students in all suggestions, comments or criticisms on academic matters.

S. Warren, R. Caulk, A. Zalnasky, J. Beamer, G. Klingman, R. Kuczinski, J. Treese, A. Snyder

MEN'S GOV'T

Seated: V. Valicenti, B. Weening, L. Rehberg, D. Oliver, H. Yocum. Standing: R. Santucci.

Its function is the maintenance of orderliness in the men's dorms, but it has rendered a valuable service in arranging accommodations for week-end guests. The "Dorm-of-the-Month" contest, with special privileges to the winner, attracted lots of interest.

UNDERCLASS

This committee forms the channel for the execution of all activities directed towards the freshman class. At a time when frosh mentality is conveniently pliable, the underclass committee works to train it properly in the Juniata way by a variety of not-so-subtle means. Freshman Court and its attendant Show serve as standard operating practices. Then there's Freshman Initiation—the one held this year will stick to the memories of everybody. On a more serious vein, the underclass committee arranged a functioning Big Brother and Sister program for the frosh.

J. Bistline, T. DiGruttolo, N. Smith, D. Samuel, B. Samuel, F. Beam, J. Kase, D. Kutch, V. Valicenti, D. Rhodes, G. Patrick, D. Snyder, H. Heckman, D. McCoach, A. Beech. In center: J. Oriss.

ATHLETICS

First Row: B. J. Miller, Joyce Stover, Syl Middlekauff. Second Row: Lona Grim, Barb Canto, Fred Beam, Francie Brumbaugh, Larry Jones. Third Row: Harry Knisely, Rich Caulk, Rick Gardner, Dave Samuel.

Assuming the responsibility of organizing Intramural sports, the Athletic Committee finds itself with a year-round job. It can find ample satisfaction in the realization that it provides activities for one of the largest participating bodies on campus. This year saw a revision of the intramural handbook, expansion of leagues, and the presentation of awards. Good supervision and organization paid off in balanced competition and plenty of enthusiasm.

RELIGION

The Religious Activities Committee faces the ticklish task of satisfying the religious needs of all the denominations represented at Juniata. Its biggest effort in this direction was the formation of the Religious Convocations Study Committee. By studying the situations in 30 small colleges, it sought a remedy to the prevailing dissatisfaction with the contents of religious programs. All-College discussions, notably on Evolution and Christianity, and week-end exchange of students with Hampton Institute, were other novel features sponsored by the committee.

Dean Yohe, Linda Mumma, Bea Schorsch, Lois Bee Martin, Marion Kercher, Beth Kerns, Peggy Robinson, Nancy Good.

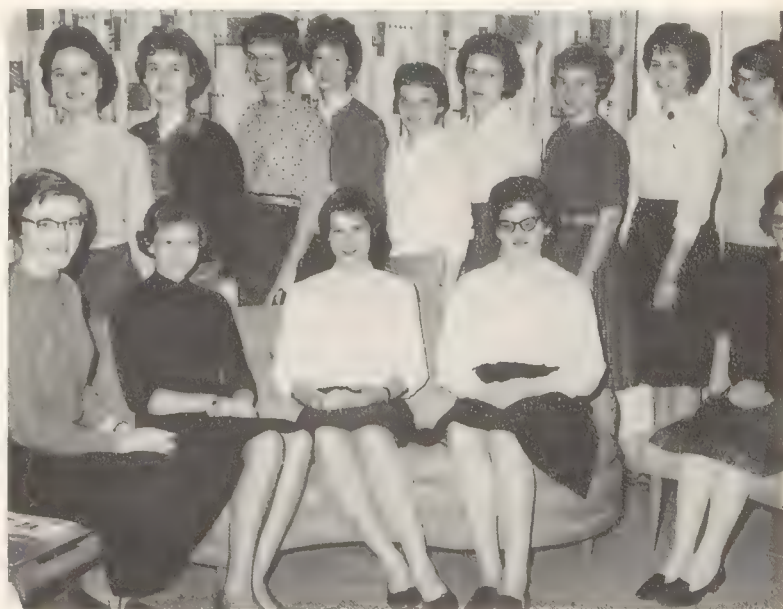

As far as women students are concerned, this is the long arm of the law. Under the chairmanship of Linda Mumma of Women's Government and the guidance and counsel of Dean Yohe, this body of six women students deals with cases of misdemeanor on the part of girls. As in previous years, infraction of curfew rules was the problem that confronted the board most frequently at their weekly sessions.

JUDICIAL BOARD

WOMEN'S GOVT.

Representing the interests and concerns of the women students before the Dean of Women, this group also acts in a supervisory capacity as hall proctors. Their responsibilities include the organization of hall displays on major week-ends, the production of skits as well as the planning for several traditional activities such as the Firelighting Ceremony, Exam Teas, and Skit Night.

WJC

WJC—the voice of Juniata—has had an active year. This campus radio station has continued to sell The Philadelphia Inquirer for capital necessary for improvement. A move has been made to a new location where a completely new panel set-up has been installed. Many changes were made in production standards and a more complete and varied record library is slowly being built. One other important activity has been the taping of 15-minute shows entitled “Juniata College on the Air” for a commercial radio station in the area.

HONOR SOCIETY

TAU EPSILON SIGMA

Angie Hoover, Pat Cole, Sylvia Middlekauff, Paul Gill, Rick Gardner, John Caton, Earl Wehry.

To honor students who attain outstanding scholarship and to elevate the general scholastic standard of Juniata College is the purpose of the Juniata Honor Society. A Committee of Election selects Society members from the junior and senior classes on the basis of scholarly achievement, moral integrity, and broad cultural interests. In the spring, the members are feted at a banquet.

To recognize those students who have made a significant contribution to the extra-curricular life of the campus as well as maintaining a good overall academic average, Tau Epsilon Sigma has been created. Members of this Honor Service Club work together to foster pleasant relations with visiting personnel to our campus through ushering for Oller Hall activities, participating in Brethren Campus Day, and helping at registration desks during special guest week-ends.

CHEER LEADERS

"Special big sisters" to frosh coeds are Herians. Leadership, scholarship, and citizenship are of prime consideration in selecting members of this sophomore honor society. In addition to serving as orientation counsellors, these girls serve as table heads, Brethren Campus Day hostesses, and, this year, made and sold Christmas stockings.

Juniata's eight cheerleaders aim at organizing and developing school spirit within the student body. Besides cheering at football and basketball games, the squad plans a series of pep rallies throughout athletic seasons. As a self-supporting organization, they earn the money with which they undertake their programs.

Through Scalpel and Probe, biology students gain insight to the practical side of their chosen field through contact with persons active in biological and medical endeavors. Occasional field trips to hospitals and clinical laboratories and to the annual Science Conference acquaint the members with advanced study and career opportunities in biology and allied fields.

GERMAN CLUB

To acquaint the Juniata campus with a bit of Deutschland, its people, and its culture is part of the aim of the college's German Club. Club members endeavor to learn about the German society and customs.

SIGMA PSI

Sigma Psi endeavors to further interest in the fields of sociology and psychology. Means of gaining insight into these fields, panel discussions, films, guest speakers and trips to institutions were undertaken. An additional highlight to this year's program featured discussion with Dr. Evelyn Duval, nationally known expert in social problems.

LAMBDA GAMMA

In fulfilling its purpose of providing educational programs on the various opportunities available in home economics, Lambda Gamma's programs have covered centerpiece displays, Scandinavian meals, hospital service and style shows.

P.S.E.A.

The Student PSEA as a professional organization for those preparing to enter the field of teaching, is chartered by the Pennsylvania State Education Association. Among their activities are sponsorship of an annual Halloween Party for Huntingdon's first graders, monthly meetings, films, panel discussions, and guest speakers. Their interest extends to the state level as they send delegates to statewide conferences and conventions.

JUNIATA CHRISTIAN FELLOWSHIP

Juniata Christian Fellowship, a nonsectarian organization, stresses the relevance of Christianity to campus living. To enable the individual to have a more meaningful personal relationship with God, JCF's members conduct weekly worship and fellowship meetings, song fests, discussions and dormitory Bible study groups. Participation in regional and national conferences attempts to develop an awareness of the work of Christianity throughout the world.

Seated: Dottie Horton, Andronico Adede, Lona Grim, Doris Fluke, Darlene Yeager, Fred Beam, Lucy Cookson, B. J. Miller, Peggy Dilling. Standing: Norma Kinard, Ginny Emery, Roger Perhacs, Jack DuBois, Bruce Harvey, Rick Gardner, George Baker.

TOURING CHOIR

Touring throughout the northeastern United States presenting concerts in schools, churches, public auditoriums and on TV is Juniata's singing ambassador-of-good-will group, the College Choir. Between terms the choir traveled an extensive 11-day tour through Pennsylvania, New York and the New England states, and during the Spring, the group made several weekend trips to Pennsylvania communities. Highlights of this year's program included the combined concerts with the Susquehanna University Choir and the Elizabethtown College Choir. Members of the group participate in commencement choir.

MARCHING BAND

Adding musical spirit, pep and sparkle to the football season is the Juniata College Marching Band and Pom Pom squad. This year these musical units presented halftime entertainment at the home football games, provided music for the pep rallies and were on hand for the Pretzel Bowl game with Albright. The majorettes, twirler and color guard added to the brilliancy of the unit.

J CLUB

Recognizing Juniata lettermen, promoting good sportsmanship and stimulating interest in varsity and intramural sports comprise the objectives of the Juniata J Club. Activities include publishing the Indian, the Tomahawk, booster tags, and co-sponsoring with W.R.A. the Homecoming Dance. J jackets are awarded to members who have earned two varsity letters. The group is encouraging a mixed IM sports program.

Shutterbugs and photo fans are given the chance to develop their hobby through the Camera Club. This year the club became affiliated with the Photographic Society of America. Club Facilities include a studio and darkroom in the Faculty Club basement.

More sports activities for women participation as well as to create more interest in women's sports are the general aims of the Women's Recreation Association. This year, W.R.A. organized intra-mural programs in basketball and volleyball, participated in play days and co-sponsored the Homecoming Dance Carousel with J Club. W.R.A. basketballers faced the J Club team this year under the rules of the Roman Empire—the occasion was for the campus Toga Party.

Experience in the theater and drama is fulfilled through Juniata's Masque group. Masque members endeavor to learn more about dramatics and to improve the quality of campus productions. Liliom, Skin of Our Teeth, The Children's Theatre and the Christmas pageant highlighted this season's activities.

FOOTBALL 1961

A brilliant performance against Gettysburg in the season's opener gave Juniata fans a bright outlook for the prospects of another winning year, but to the surprise and dismay of the loyal, the opener was far from prophetic.

Who would have guessed then that this would be a campaign marred with injuries, loose ball handling, interceptions and defeats at the hands of Moravian, Hampton, Albright and Westminster?

Following the Gettysburg victory, the Tribe suffered an upset at Moravian, and it was a question of the Greyhounds having an unusually great team or the Indians slipping. Unfortunately, the latter became a grim fact.

Juniata made a tough home showing against Geneva the following week, defeating the Covies by a 19-16 margin. At Drexel it looked as if the Tribe might have regained its opening-day form as the Dragons were dumped 17-7. However, losses to Hampton, Albright, and Westminster closed the season on an unhappy note.

Finishing gridiron careers at Juniata were nine seniors, led by co-captains Ray Erney and Phil Rohm. Others were guard Serb Evasovich, halfback George Patrick, tackles Jim Tufano, Al Zalnasky, Mike Kolitsky, and Hal Royer, and fullback Jack Beamer.

Little All-American guard Bill Crowell merits special mention as being one of the finest guards in many a season at Juniata. The rugged sophomore was all over the field on defense and a fierce, hustling and timely blocker on offense.

Fullback Grey Berrier fought many good fights, crowned by the MVP award in the Pretzel Bowl contest. The bruising back did honors to the name that is becoming legend in football annals on College Hill.

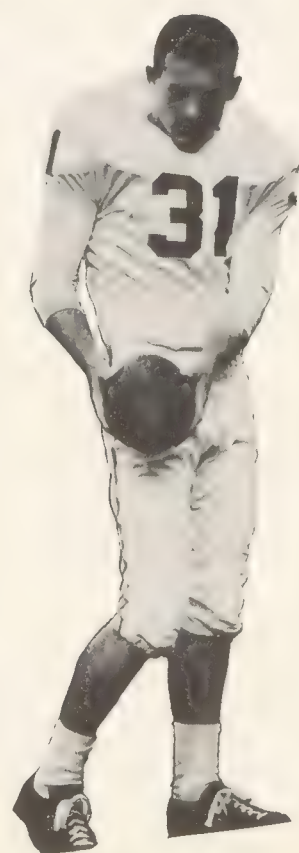

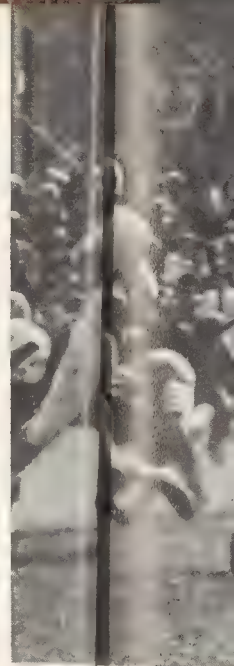

The broken field running of freshman halfback Barry Broadwater brought the fans to their feet several times.

These three underclassmen and a number of other spirited up-and-comers may cause an upswing in gridiron fortunes at Juniata in the near future.

CROSS COUNTRY 1961

Twenty-six in a row to thirty-four in a row—that was the 1961 season for the Indian harriers, as they chalked up their fifth consecutive undefeated season. Junior captain Bob Berthold and freshman student Earl Samuel were the speed boys who paced the depth-studded array of runners. Supplying the added power were Roy Bulkley, Rob Gardner, Bill Chew, Chet Berkey, and Paul Pesthy. Also adding to the team in number, spirit, and depth were John Reeves, Richard Bradway, Dick O'Connell, Karl Baer, Charlie Stoner, Ken Shortlidge, Chuck Douglass, and Roger Perhacs.

This year's squad, in trampling eight foes, averaged a mere eighteen points against the opponents' 46. The season was capped by a seventh place in an extremely strong field of twenty teams in the MAC championships at Muhlenburg College in Allentown. The bright facts about the team are these: there were three frosh in the top seven, and none of the top ten runners are lost through the sheepskin.

Co-captains: E. Samuel, B. Berthold

WRESTLING 1962

A much-improved Juniata mat team, winning four matches and losing five, completed its most successful season since wrestling was inaugurated as a varsity sport a short three years ago.

The Indian grapplers won decisions over Elizabethtown, Dickinson, St. Francis, and Gettysburg, while losing to strong Lycoming, Shippensburg, Indiana, Albright teams. The heartbreaker of the season came as a 14-13 loss to Lebanon Valley.

Juniata lettermen who will return next year and who ended this season with individual winning records were Harry Gahagan, J. C. Day, Joe Kuchmay, and Grey Berrier.

Coach Shollenberger's prospects for next year's team look bright with the return of other lettermen Bob Cassidy, Ken Harckom, Duane Ruble, and Tom Paxson. Heavyweight Steve Barnett will be the only letterman lost via graduation.

BASKETBALL 1962

The 1961-62 basketball season at Juniata was a little brighter than the 4-13 win-loss record would indicate. Hindered from the outset by inexperience, Coach Ralph Harden, in his first year as hardcourt mentor at J.C., played several freshmen throughout the season, rebuilding for the future.

Led by captain Stan Hallman, the only member of the team who will graduate, the Indians displayed a lot of courage and hustle in playing some of the best small college teams in the East.

Among those who exhibited some of this hustle and showed flashes of real ability were sophomores Ron Veit and Tom Rupert, along with junior back-court ace Pat Frazier. Gaining valuable experience this past year were such bright prospects as Tom Wiklund, John Moeller, Dan Ranck, and Leroy Mock, all freshmen.

With the return of a fine nucleus, Juniata fans can look forward to better days in the next season and for several seasons after that.

TRACK 1961

Never being able to perform up to their potential, the track and field men completed the season with only one first place victory. Due to inclement weather conditions and a late spring, the Indians were hampered in their training efforts and dropped the first three meets to strong Gettysburg, Shippensburg, and Lock Haven teams. Gradually improving, the Tribesmen next took second place in a triangular meet with Bucknell and Lycoming but dropped to third against

P.M.C. and Lebanon Valley. The final two meets found Coach Snider's chargers defeating Susquehanna for their first win of the season, but taking third in a triangular meet with Albright and Dickinson.

Returning lettermen for next year will include Bob Berthold, Rob Gardner, Terry DiGruttolo, George Patrick, Al Zalnasky, Jack Beamer and Al Beech.

GOLF 1961

Although the 1961 edition of Juniata's golf team was somewhat of a disappointment in the win-loss column, showing a 5-5 record, the season showed some high spots along the way.

Jack Vernocy, winner of the C. Blair Miller Award as the outstanding player of the year and Jim Williams, a steady number 2 man, finished off their college careers in fine fashion. These two, plus Sonny Dudzinski, a sophomore letterman, Ray Erney, a junior letterman, and two freshmen, Fred Ettline and Jim Cook, made a pleasant season for Coach Bill Germann.

In 1962, the golf team will probably undergo a rebuilding program, with only two letter winners returning, probation stealing two fine players.

BASEBALL 1961

With the graduation of some of the finest baseball talent ever seen on College Hill in June of 1960, it looked as if 1961 would be a year of rebuilding and experimenting. A spirited group of newcomers, backed by consistent performance of a handful of veterans, proved the experiment to be a surprising success.

The weather was responsible for shaving the schedule to ten games, but regardless of the irregular spacing of games, the Tribe retained its high spirits and mid-season polish and came out on the winning side of the ledger with a respectable 6-4 record.

Juniata opened with a victory over Washington College, then tasted defeat at the hand of Albright at Reading. Twin victories over Elizabethtown and Lycoming and a May Day decision over Susquehanna placed the Tribe in the ranks of contenders for the Northern Division crown of the MAC.

But Lebanon Valley put the damper on hopes with a disappointing 13-inning victory at College Field. Then a long trip to Upsala proved fruitless as Juniata fell victim to a last inning questionable decision by an official and saw championship hopes fade altogether. Dickinson added a final sour note to the season by posting a 5-2 victory at Carlisle.

Catcher Grey Berrier, second team All-Conference, sparked the team at bat with a fine .407 average. The husky backstop also demonstrated a fine arm and alert defensive ability. Southpaw Dick Geesaman and right-hander Bill Miller handled the bulk of the pitching chores with senior Jim Seacrist picking up a win in a relief role.

Third baseman Dan Larimer was the only other .300 plus hitter with a .315, but although there was not an abundance of high averages, the hitting was timely for the most part, and with few exceptions, the hits were there when needed.

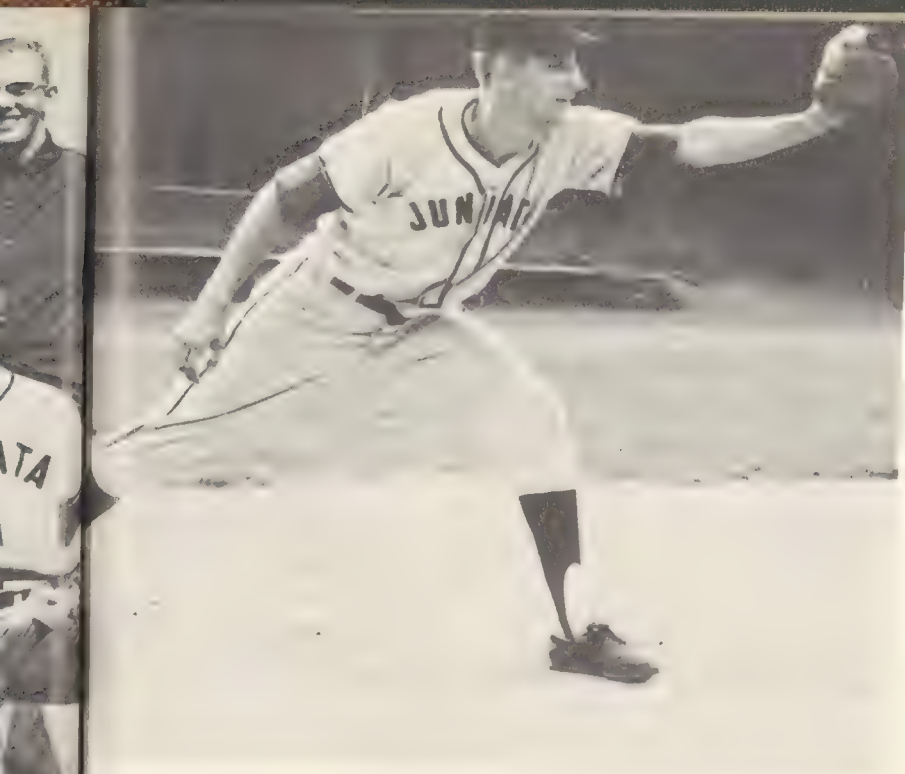

Outfielder Roy Martin and second baseman Bob Melago closed out their college careers with their usual consistent play at bat and in the field.

Veteran Stan Hallman gave evidence of his power potential on several occasions and continued his flawless play at first base. Freshman Randy Pletcher was a pleasant surprise at shortstop and it appears that his smooth fielding has won him a four year job. Larimer patrolled the hot corner with a capable glove.

Duke Snyder's circus catches in center and the ground-covering ability of Sandy Warren in right turned a number of sure hits into long outs. Snyder did honors to his leadoff position by consistently getting on base and Warren's slugging ability gave the Tribe a needed lift several times.

With the core of the team returning, the prospects of a highly successful spring of 1962 are extremely bright.

TENNIS 1961

Despite the loss of two high-ranking lettermen, the J.C. tennis squad, under the guidance of Mr. Post, managed a fairly successful season. Formed about a nucleus of returning lettermen, Stan Conner, Jack Merrill, Chick Weist, and Mike Pentz, the team achieved victories over Indiana, Delaware Valley, and Elizabethtown (twice). These four victories were totalled against five defeats. During the season Dick Henry filled the number 5 slot while the number 6 slot was filled alternately by David Barr and Glenn Paris. The season's results showed that the team was more successful at doubles than at singles. The doubles combination that did the worst damage was Weist and Conner with a 5-1 record. Merrill and Pentz, Barr and Paris, Mauger and Grove saw occasional action.

Prospects for the '62 season are bright with five of the starting six men returning plus the addition of two other experienced netmen, Pete Christie and Jack Latshaw.

INE PRINTING SINCE 1887—

That's the story of Foote & Davies, Inc.

Today we have one of the most modern and best equipped plants in the country. And fine Yearbooks have always been an important part of our business. Our craftsmen believe in quality and strive to produce the "best in the Industry." Our excellent printing doesn't just happen—it's a combination of production research, craftsmanship, and painstaking supervision.
